Charmaine spent the first 10 years of her practice in estate planning before joining Craig to establish Stainbrook & Stainbrook, LLP, in 2006. Since that time, she has concentrated her practice on trademark law and business formation, offering invaluable expertise in guiding clients through the complexities of intellectual property rights and corporate structuring.

Charmaine is dedicated to working closely with clients, ensuring they understand their options and helping them navigate trademark selection and business strategy. Her commitment to making the legal process understandable and accessible has been a hallmark of her career.

Charmaine began her transition to Nolte Lackenbach Siegel in 2024, expanding her reach and capabilities in the field of intellectual property law. She continues to provide exceptional service to her clients.
